A Parish Mission with

St Juliana Falconieri Catholic Church
1316 Acacia Ave • Fullerton, CA 92831

Monday-Tuesday-Wednesday
February 28th - March 2nd

Mornings @ 9:00 am following the 8:00 am Mass
Evenings @ 7:00 pm in the Church

The same material will be presented at both sessions

“Encountering Jesus in the Four Gospels: Learning, Believing, and Following”
Feb. 28 – March 2, 2011

- √ Monday: “Jesus in the Four Gospels: Why are they such radically different portraits?”
- √ Tuesday: “Jesus in Matthew’s Gospel: What can we learn from the Greatest Teacher?”
- √ Wednesday: “Jesus in John’s Gospel: What happens if we truly believe in God’s Son?”

You are invited and encouraged to attend all three days of our parish mission (or any one or two days, if you can’t come to all three). Each session will include some presentation and reflection, as well as time for learning about and experiencing various forms of biblically-based prayer and meditation.

Please bring your Bible, and bring along your family and friends, too!
